

Tranquility Update

Trail Leader Doug has been out there doing tread work every day and the course is in good shape and begging to be ridden. A good portion of the new north reroutes and the big climb on the south hill have been benched in and tread work will continue for the next several weeks so the course should continue to mature and get smoother.

May 08